The June meeting was held in Austin Park at 6:PM on the 8th.

All regular activities were suspended for this meeting, including prize drawings, show n tell and find of the month.

Our program for the month was an "Ice Cream Social" and a "Tarp hunt" for all members.

There were more flavors of ice cream than Baskin Robbins and we did our best to sample all of them.

No one reported eating too little and it was all very good!

The tarp hunt was based on a vinyl square tarp with 16 squares painted on it. Various metal targets were hidden under each square.

The object was to identify as many of the targets correctly in the shortest amount of time. The hunt was a lot of fun and educational as well.

The winners were (1-Fred Bobo-A presidential silver coin (2 Jim Nichols-a 1929 half dollar and (3 Mark Davey- a 1957 Washington Quarter.

Hats off to Jim Nichols, Rodney Laubhan and Mark Davey for their efforts in putting the hunt together. Well Done guys!

After the hunt, there was a clean-up of the park. Several residents stopped by to say thanks for our clean-up efforts and adoption of the park. The city has erected a sign for all park users to see.

Camp M K Brown club hunt

About 13 club adventurers took off to Camp MK Brown May 22 and 5-6 on the 23. MK Brown is a long time Boy Scout camp just east of Mobeetie. Most met at McDonalds and pooled up for the drive. The drive was a fairly long one but it was a nice overcast day and we were all thinking it was going to be Camp Don revisited so the trip went quickly! We just knew there would be silver and wheats for everyone!

We got to the Rangers house right at 9:00AM and checked in. I asked the Ranger how long the camp had been there. It was named MK Brown in 1967 but had been in another council since the late forties, so silver was an excellent possibility. We went to the parking area and the intrepid hunters took off in many directions looking for the "hot spot". Well at lunch break it was evident that the hot spots for silver were not found. Everyone had coins but of current dates and few nice Boy Scout items but no silver yet. After lunch and a few pictures we again embarked on the silver crusade.

Like the crusades of the Middle East you had to pick your treasure from the disappointment from lack of true success and it wasn't from the lack of trying. For our hunters it was a great day out, good company and a beautiful day but that was the extent of the treasure at MK Brown with just a couple wheats, , a couple of boy scout items, hundreds of clad coins and some more bolos but no silver. Maybe the older council was poor and didn't carry coins like they did at Camp Don? I think another group hunt to MK Brown isn't justified but let me know if you feel different. Still a good time was had and everyone did a good job looking and taking care of the place.

Jim Nichols
